OPINIONS AT ODDS

The opinions of Judges Flannigan and O'Brien as regards mineral taxes seem to be at variance for at L'Anse Judge O'Brien held the tax good excepting as to one township while in Iron Judge Flannigan held the taxes void on the point of insufficient description.

While press reports are not specific as to the exact point upon which Judge O'Brien ruled, the fact that M. J. Sherwood appeared in the Baraga cases as he did in all other cases would lead one to the conclusion that he held the description sufficient.

Mr. Sherwood is reported to have declared that he will take the case to the supreme court and, with the conflict in opinion, that is the only place where tax officials can get straightened out.
